The Lasky Clan

Captain Thomas Lasky stood in front of the holo-table aboard the bridge of his ship, the UNSC Infinity the biggest ship in the UNSC navy. It had been 3 months since the events of Requiem and Commander Palmer was still seething over his decision to spare Doctor Halsey's life.

"Roland" Lasky spoke to the Infinity's Smart A.I. .Said A.I. materialized on the holo-table in his World War Two bomber aviator avatar "Yeah Captain?" Roland spoke in his usual skippy tone.

"Tell Commander Palmer to meet me in my office in 15." Lasky informed the A.I. "Aye,Aye sir!" responded Roland.'Well' Lasky thought to himself 'this will be one interesting conversation'

15 Minutes Later

Captain Lasky stood up to straighten his uniform while he waited for Commander Palmer to straightening his shirt and fixing his collar so it was correctly sooner than he had sat down he heard the door open to reveal Commander Palmer in her usual casual wear. Grey cargo pants and a long sleeve black shirt."You needed to speak with me Captain?" Lasky sighed as Palmer adressed him in the professional way she has since the final events of Requiem.

"Yes Sarah I needed to ask you a question." stated Lasky. "Yes Captain?" "Sarah you can drop the formal act!" snapped Lasky "Fine! What do you need Tom!" putting emphasis on the captains first name. "I was wondering if um if when we uh next time we get planet side that we could maybe have a um date?" Lasky asked a bit meek and shyly.

Sarah Palmer dumbstruck at what Lasky had said."Um Tom did you just ask me out on a date"

Lasky sighed "Yes I did Sarah so what do you say?".Palmer stood for a few seconds contemplating the pro's and con's on one hand she really though Tom was a great guy,had a great personality and he was very on the other hand fraternization was frowned upon in the at the end Palmer decided the risk was worth the smiled at Lasky "Of course Tom".Lasky smiled himself "Ok then next time we go groundside I'll call and tell you the restruant and we'll take a Warthog there" Lasky informed Palmer "A Warthog Tom? Shouldn't you rent a car?" Palmer asked "Of course I'll rent one when we get there" Palmer smiled and got up and left.

"Roland?" "Yes cap'?" asked the Infinity's AI "Can you check to see where the nearest tuxedo shop and car rental shop are nearest to the spaceport we'll be docking with is?" Lasky asked the AI. Roland chuckled "Would you like me to find an appropriate restruant to?" Roland teased Lasky actually took him seriously "Actually that would be a good thank you Roland!"

Roland shook his head "Aye,aye captain I'll get back to you on it once we exit slipspace." "Thanks Roland I owe you I need to file some reports so leave please." "Yes sir".

Then Rolands avatar blinked out of exsistence.'Well' Lasky thought to himself 'this will be interesting'
